ABSTRACT

Meriyana (2022). The Influence of Organizational Culture and Job Satisfaction on the Performance of Civil Servants at the Department of Agriculture of East OKU Regency. Under the guidance of Dr. Rini Efrianti, S.E., M.Si and RR. Dimas Veronica P, S.E., M.M. This study aims to determine the influence of organizational culture and job satisfaction on the performance of civil servants at the Department of Agriculture of East OKU Regency.

The data analysis technique used is Multiple Linear Regression. Based on the results of the partial analysis, there is a significant influence between Organizational Culture on the Performance of Civil Servants at the Department of Agriculture of East OKU Regency and there is a significant influence between Job Satisfaction on the Performance of Civil Servants at the Department of Agriculture of East OKU Regency. Simultaneously obtained F count $156.317 > F$ table 3.23 then H_0 is rejected and H_a is accepted, meaning that simultaneously there is a significant influence between Organizational Culture and Job Satisfaction on the Performance of Civil Servants at the Department of Agriculture of East OKU Regency. The coefficient of determination (R^2) obtained is 0.887. This shows that the contribution of the influence of organizational culture and job satisfaction on employees' performance is 88.7% while the remaining 11.3% is influenced by other variables not included in this research model such as individual factors and leadership factors (Sopiah and Sangdji, 2018: 352).
